Mr. Frank Kincaid of EWING, VIRGINIA

engaged us to sell his fine 333 acres of land at the above named place. We cut it into town lots, small farms and large farms and on July 12th when we had our sale there was such a demand for lots that we could not sell but about 120 acres in all, so that we have several choice lots and small farms remaining which we will sell at Public Auction for the high dollar at ten a. m. rain or shine on the farm

Saturday, August Ninth.

Mr. Kincaid confirmed all we sold the other time and this sale will be even better than the first. We have some of the most beautiful large tracts, say three acres and up, you ever saw; then there are some fine small farms to be sold including the famous Richmond Mansion House; and the residence lots yet to be sold cannot be excelled for location and view. Already Ewing is growing as a result of our other sale. Men are digging foundations for houses and by the time the New Lee County Agricultural High School opens with Prof. Crockett in charge there will be many new houses filled with students. TERMS on all sales: One-third cash, balance 1, 2 and 3 years.

$10.00 in Gold Free and Brass Band Music.
